Good bye summer hello fall. October is upon us and soon the little gremlins will be trick or treating. We have a very active club there are some finishing touches being made to our events.

A special thanks to Jenni Gratien, Executive director of Chadwick residence for updating our club on the development of Chadwick Residence. As in past years we pour wine and support the Red White and Blue auction and dinner. We have an interesting selection of speakers at our general meetings: 10/3 we had Stephanie of Syracuse Fox, Director of Community Engagement for Hope Print an organization that empowers resettled refugees on the North Side to thrive. Look what is “coming up” and see our future speakers

Save Around Coupon Books: Matt Iudice is distributing 4 books to members. The books are being sold for $25.00 and the club receives $10.00 for each book. We had to commit ourselves to 100 books so let's support Matt by doing our best to buy and or sell the books. They make good Christmas gifts, I know my children look forward towards receiving them.

Our Annual Rotary Luncheon is scheduled on November 14th. The luncheon is planned for the Elks Club and the luncheon ticket price is $25.00. Brian Kesel is chairing this year's luncheon. Members are asked to bring in a Table of 8 to the event. We will be distributing contributions at recognition luncheon.

Both the Investment policy and 2017-2018 was finalized at the October 2 Budget and Finance Committee Meeting. A special thanks to both Stan Cerlanek and Vars Smith for their invaluable assistance in composing the policy and preparing the budget. Final copies will be distributed at one of our Tuesday meetings.

Membership Dues are past due.

The dues are for $125.00/year. Most of the money provides for both the clubs District dues and Rotary International dues as well as your Rotary Magazine. Dues are based upon the members on record. Please send your Dues to Stan Cerlanek, Treasurer. He is located at the Fairmount branch of Solvay Bank.
