Newsletter

Today's newsletter incorporates two weeks of Club activities. We have been blessed with excellent speakers Bob Balk shared his involvement with the Para Olympics and Jeff Wright spoke about the good works of Move Along, an organization that establishes adaptive sports activities. Mike Smithson, a paraplegic, shared how sports positively helped him to adapt to overcoming his handicap. The stories were impressive and inspiring.

Joe Gryga, Vice President substituted for President Kimberly at the May 31st meeting. Both meetings were ably led.

Note: On Tuesday June 7th, our next meeting, we will not be at the Coppertop for lunch. Instead we are having an evening meeting at the Inn Between. All members are encouraged to attend. Please let George (315 952-2256) know if you are attending and if you are having Dinner. We must provide a count on Monday. The Dinner is set for 6PM. Come early and be social. This meeting will host Mike Waters from the Syracuse Newspapers who will be giving the inside scoop on this coming Syracuse Basketball season.

We will resume our regular luncheon meeting at the Coppertop on June 14th.

On the light side: Did you know that the word NEWS is derived from North, East, West, & South. The four directions from which we receive information.
