News Letter September 8th 2014

President Drake opened the Monday meeting introducing the guests from the Camillus Parks Dept., Eric Bacon and The Town Shop's out-going Director Cheryl Vermilya who thanked the club for their $2,500 donation which was used to renovate the second floor into an arts center and established a fund to support youth in their art endeavors. Cheryl also introduced the new director Deborah Ancilloti a resident of Camillus. Cheryl will be working seasonally with the parks department.

Our Guest Speaker, Tammy Wood from EarQ gave an informative presentation on hearing loss. There are more people under 65 with hearing loss than there are people over 65. It is important to get your hearing checked regularly. Tammy indicated the reasons and causes of hearing loss to include the exposure of our society in this past generation a greater amount of noise exposure. Other causes are medical and genetic.
