News Letter February 10, 2015

Cynthia Drake opened the Meeting with the ringing of the bell, and the club recited the Pledge of Allegiance and Neal gave the invocation. We sang America the Beautiful.

While attendance was low, members enjoyed the lively conversations and good food.

Meals on Wheels: We are looking good through the end of March. Keep up the good work.

Next Week's speaker is Michael Waters from the Post Standard. Mike's beat is SU Basketball. Great opportunity to bring a potential member and guests. Let's show our support by coming to our next meeting Tuesday, February 17th.

Our guest Speaker, Erica Johnston, was introduced. Erica explained how she began her new business venture, Moving Solutions, recognizing a need of elderly people downsizing or moving to an independent living center. Erica assists them in organizing and removing, and selling their possessions as well as to decorate their new domicile with possessions they are familiar with. The service definitely removes stress, and provides people with support during the separation that occurs from leaving their homes. Erica can be contacted at: 315 559-9494. Email: johnstonmoving@gmail.com

We are under the gun by our president. The need to get a presidential citation under membership requires that we bring in new members. Our goal is three by March 15th. We need your help. Talk up membership and get the motivated potential members to sign on the dotted line. Also all 23 existing members are requested to go to the Rotary.Com website and under the membership link please update your profile. If you need assistance come to our meetings and Kim or George will assist you.,

Upcoming Events:

Thursday, February 19th Rotary Tech night Marcellus Library. Bring your computer and learn how to use it. Please let George know if you plan to attend. We must phone in a count to Marcellus Rotary the hosting club.

Object of Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular to foster:

1. The development of acquaintances as an opportunity for service.
2. High ethical standards in business and professions.
3. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal business and community life.
4. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world of fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
