News Letter March 24th, 2015

Next Meeting

Tuesday March 31, 2015

Wow! What a surprise. Attendance was so good we had to find seats in the side booths. The meeting began with the pledge of Allegiance, a robust version of God Bless America, and prayer. Cynthia welcomed our guest speaker, and our returning Rotarians.

Cynthia Drake introduced Timothy Perry and asked George Mango to conduct the new member ceremony. George invited Tim's sponsor John Rohner to join them in front of the banner. Tim was introduced by John who gave a brief biography. Tim is a retired Attorney and living with his wife on Shaker Heights Rd. Tim and John are neighbors. The New member packet was presented with The Rotary pin. We know Tim will be a great asset to our club.

Stan reported on the Finance Committee held last week. In answer to the question how the committee is selected. It is the president's prerogative to appoint the committee. After some discussion the Committee is recommending that the committee have 7 members. To include the President, President elect, Treasurer, and 4 Club members to be appointed by the President. Cynthia invited members to indicate their interest in the committee. The membership voted to accept the
