New Member – Inducted today.

Brian Kesel, Asst. Superintendent, West Genesee School District receives his welcome new member packet from President Kim and sponsor John Rohner.

Kimberly Frodelius has proposed her husband Blair for membership. Blair is a musician and will be voted upon at our next meeting. Members are encouraged to spread the word of the benefits of being a Rotarian and share the good works and services we provide.

Kim welcomed our visiting Rotarian of past years, Tom Hinds, Retired NY Tel guy. Club welcomed Tom with our greeting song.

RYLA application is due on May 1st to our club and by 5/20th to the District. RYLA is a Youth leadership training program that our club will sponsor. Depending on the number of applicants the amount of sponsorship will be determined. Each applicant will cost the club $250.00. A cost well worth the benefit to our youth and Rotary.

Our West Genesee H.S. Academic De Cathalon team is fundraising for their trip. The event is a pancake breakfast at the Elks Club on April 10th from 8-12. All members are asked to attend and support our high school's competing scholars.

This week's speaker, Matt Murphy from the Marcellus Club has been postponed.

Syracuse Basketball Men's and Woman's Teams have made it into the Final Four NCAA Championship. The games are to be played this Saturday for the men and this Sunday for the Woman. Go Orange!

April 22 & 23 OCRRA is holding their Earth Day Clean Up. We have been invited to participate. Register for the event by April 15. Next meeting we will discuss our participation.
