We began the New Year with our evening meeting at Twin trees too. We had an affordable dinner of Pizza and Salad. Optional to make a contribution of $5,00. The new year will focus on looking carefully at our club's services, its public image in the community, and its contributions. Efforts to build our club, and build synergy with other like- minded community organizations and community service clubs to address the needs in our community will also begin this year.

The following slate of officers will be voted on at our next meeting:

President: George Mango
1st Vice President : Brian Kesel
2nd Vice President: Joseph Gryga
Secretary: John Rohner
Treasurer: Stan Cerlanek
Foundation Chair: Paul Theodore

We have over the past month excellent speakers thanks to Neal and Blair Frodelius. We learned about Home Headquarters from the director Kerry Quaglia on December 13th., and A Tiny House for Good from its founder Andrew Lunetta. Both organizations are meeting important needs in our community.

At this evening's meeting our guest speaker was Adam Sudman from

With Love Restaurant, an organization assisting emigrants in building a business and develop skills that make them employable in the restaurant business. Through an arrangement with OCC community college they are a teaching restaurant. Every 6 months they incubate a new restaurant in residence preparing and serving a new national Cuisine. Adam shared a desert made with carrots called Gajar Halma. Delicious. This 6th month period is focusing on Pakistan. The restaurant is located at 435 North Salina Street and is open to the public Tues-Wednesday 12 noon to 2PM and Thurs – Friday from 5 PM to 8 PM. I attached a menu to this newsletter.

Make a written list of your 2017 resolutions and remember this:

Please share with us your club wishes and future focus. Help us to become a more welcoming club. If you have a preference on serving on a committee please let your leadership know or jot me an e-mail. At gmango2000@yahoo.com
