Call to Order: Joseph Gryga, V. Pres. Called the meeting to order. Kimberly Frodelius is in route via train. We hopefully will see her next week. Joe led us in the salute to the flag, George Croaked a verse of "God Bless America" and John Rohner offered a prayer of thanksgiving and a moment of silence for the lost barge and the lives aboard.

Repeated Guest Anthony Angelo was welcomed. George read his application and proposed him for membership. A motion was made to accept Anthony Angelo as a new member to our club. The motion was passed unanimously. Anthony is a graduate of Paul Smith College, and is an Insurance Broker at Mass Mutual CNY. He currently resides in Solvay and is excited about serving his community through Rotary.

Secretary, John Rohner, read thank you letters from Mathew 25 Farm for the contribution of $250.00. We discussed the state of the treasury. A motion was proposed by George Mango and seconded by John Rohner to withdraw funds in the amount of $3,000 to reimburse the general fund for checks written to the MacDonald House. An e mail is being sent to Bob Bryant to send the treasurer $3,000 from our investment portfolio being managed by Bob.

No member response has been given to attending the 90th Eastern Cities Fellowship Dinner scheduled for Sunday October 8th. Cost is now $50/per.

50/50 ticket was drawn and our newest member was the winner. He chose to draw for the Queen of spades. Guess what? No the Queen lives for another day.

Chadwick Residence's Red White and Blue event was a huge success. Rotarians assisted at the event by pouring wine. George and Steve did an extra ordinary job in picking up the wine and setting up the two bar locations. The Chadwick Residence is in a difficult position having to raise funds to replace the five year grant supporting their Social workers position that was lost this past year. All support is welcomed.

Remember to bring your bottles and cans to be recycled in the back of the Nestico's and Solvay bank's shopping center. Let them know that it is for The Rotary club of Camillus, Solvay, Geddes. Every nickel counts.

Today's chuckle:

An older man walks into a bar wearing a stovepipe hat, a waistcoat and a phony beard. He sits down at a bar and orders a drink. As the bartender sets it down, he asks, "Going to a party?"

"Yeah, a costume party, "the man answers, "I'm supposed to come dressed as my love life."

"But you look like Abe Lincoln," protests the bartender.

"That's right. My last four scores were seven years ago."

Have a great week.
