Call to Order: President Kimberly called the meeting to order. In Rotary fashion we pledged the flag sang a verse of God Bless America and Kim gave the invocation in remembrance for those who died in the France and Russian terrorist bombings.

Attendance: The room filled quickly with the largest attendance we have had at any single meeting this year. 17 members and 4 guests. Keep up the good work and remember to continue to bring your ideas and concerns to our future meetings.

Guest Introductions: George introduced his guest and potential new member Yvonne Tannenholtz, manager of our Camillus Walgreens store. Also introduced was our guest speaker Jessica Sloma and two Greek Peak visitors, Cherlynn Millicic and Jill Darling.

Squeals and Confessions: Members contributed happy dollars to the club in their many confessions.

Prior Business:

Turkey Distribution: Steve Poli reported on the purchase of turkeys for distribution. He successfully purchased $1,000 worth of turkeys at $.99/lb. Pick up this Saturday at the prescription door of Walmart for distribution.

Salvation Army Bell Ringing: George Mango distributed the sign up list for bell ringers. We have reserved two Saturdays in December: The 12th and the 19th in two hour shifts from 10AM through 6PM. We still have openings on both those days for the later shifts. Please contact George at 315 952-2256 to schedule your shift.

Roadway clean up: John Rohner is looking into the potential service task of maintaining Township 5 Blvd. A report will be given at a future meeting.

New Business: Christmas Party: Kim asked members to share their ideas for a place to hold the annual Christmas party. No decisions have been made. Next week come prepared to set a date and share your ideas.

Guest Speaker: Jessica Sloma from Greek Peak presented an update and introduction to the development of The Greek Peak resort destination. Over the past two years Greek Peak has new ownership, merged with Toggenberg ski lodge, and expanded their venue of services beyond just skiing. The new lodge accommodates conventions and meetings, has a water park and tubing rides with quad lift. Comfortable rooms and message services. They have collaborated with hotels in Cortland to pick up any overages in bookings and are offering an exciting array of events. Members of Rotary who decide they would like to book a room will be offered the business rate. Just ask for Jessica. Thanks for an interesting presentation.

Next meeting: Tuesday, November 24 at 12:30PM. Please join us in our weekly gathering and fellowship.

All new members and existing members who have not been very active are encouraged to come to share their interests. As a club we exist for more than lunch. Let's work on our "Service above Self" motto and become engaged.

Have a great week!
