December Newsletter

Merry Christmas

In light of the holidays we will not have meetings on December 26 and January 2nd. Our next meeting will be our luncheon meeting at the Copper Top Restaurant on Milton Ave on January 9th, 2018. The next evening meeting will resume on the 1st Tuesday in February, 2/6/2018 at the Twin Trees Too.

At our last meeting our 50/50 drawing was drawn by Dan Golden and unfortunately, he did not draw the Queen of Spades. We have only 2 cards left a King and the Queen of Spades. Will the winner of the 50/50 on January 9th be fortunate to collect the grand prize short of $500.00? If he is as lucky as our president, George, the pot will as per membership vote be continued into the next deck of cards. Come to our January 9th meeting to find out. In order to participate you must be a paid member of the club.

A special thank you for all who attended the Annual Christmas party. We are especially thankful to Blair Frodelius for is guitar and Christmas songs.

January 9, 2018 – Ian Richardson from the Hillside Children's Center will join us and share about his organization. Hillside Family of Agencies is family driven, youth-guided, trauma-informed, and culturally competent. They promise to provide compassionate, comprehensive, innovative and effective services to help families in the communities they serve reach their full potential. They partner with youth, adults and their families to provide individualized health, education and human services through an integrated system of care.

New Member being proposed: Brian S Conboy, Mass Mutual, NY State. Brian lives in Camillus and is a Financial Consultant.

Brian is entered on to the Brian Kesel and George team for new members this year. Please join us in this friendly competition for new members.

Next Meeting: January 9th, 2018 12:30 PM at the Copper Top Restaurant.
